MOSQUITOES PROVE TO BE PESKY FOE

Marine reserves found waging weekend war on mosquitoes a sticky job. Men and machines from the 3rd Engineer Maintenance Co were sent to the Lincoln-Lancaster Health Department to drain a large pool of stagnant water, near the State Hospital, into a nearby creek. The site was a prime breeding ground for mosquitoes. The two-day exercise also served as a part of the training program for the reserve unit which was redesignated an engineer company a year ago. (Star Photo)

Chinese Doom Talks On Split

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China said Monday it will go through with the "peace talks" scheduled for Friday in Moscow despite the widening Sino-Soviet ideological split. But it said it would stick to its tough stand against "peaceful coexistence."

The statement and new attacks on the Soviet position broadcast Monday by Peking radio made it obvious the Kremlin talks were doomed before they could even start. Peking complained that Moscow had extended their quarrel to "the sphere of state relations" by expelling 5 Chinese.

The announcement from the Chinese Central Committee broadcast by the New China News Agency accused Moscow of "direct and unreasonable attacks" on the Chinese Central Committee and said the Kremlin had taken a "serious step in further worsening Sino-Soviet relations and in manufacturing a split in the international Communist movement."

It said the ouster of 5 Chinese citizens from Russia was a move "extending the ideological differences between the two parties to the sphere of state relations." The 5 Chinese arrived in Peking Sunday and were given a warm welcome by Peking.

Peking announced its 6-man delegation to the peace conference would be headed by Teng Hsiao-ping, general secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, and would include Pan Tzu-ji, Chinese ambassador to Moscow, who is also an alternate member of the Central Committee.

Monday's announcement coincided with these other developments in the growing Chinese-Russian split.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev met in East Berlin with Communist leaders from Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria, East Germany and Poland to prepare for the Chinese confrontation. Romania was notably absent, indicating it was siding with Red China.

Travelers reaching Hong Kong from Communist China said the Peking regime had begun a campaign of abuse against Khrushchev, using such terms as "the bald-headed ass," "incurrigible Khrushchev" and "swine" in Communist cadres. The people

TITO ELECTED AGAIN—WITH NO OPPOSITION

Belgrade (UPI) — President Tito Sunday was re-elected without opposition under a new constitution that will allow him to remain in office as long as he wishes.

—Unknown persons smashed a glass-covered bullet board in front of the Chinese Communist embassy in Moscow sometime during the night, apparently in a reflection of the ideological dispute.

—This was obviously a planned act of sabotage," the Communist New China News Agency said of the window-smashing. It said 4 Soviet citizens, who pretended to be drunk, did the smashing, then chatted with Soviet guards, who made no move to stop them.

It called the smashing a "flagrantly provocative incident" and said it was "astonishing" it could have happened in the Soviet Union.

An APC spokesman said the unusual phrase "a very low yield" could be taken to mean explosions in the one-kiloton range or the equivalent of 1,000 tons of TNT.

This contrasts with the 20-kiloton force of the Hiroshima bomb which now is classed as low yield.

He would give no details on how the explosions were detected. Asked if they were airbursts, he said, "In the absence of (detected) radioactivity, even that remains problematical."

Reds May Have Held Atom Tests

Washington (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission said Sunday there is evidence that the Soviet Union may have conducted nuclear tests of very low yield in recent weeks.

It did not say whether the tests were in the atmosphere, underground or in outer space, and stated the evidence "remains inconclusive."

But the indications were that if such tests were held they were conducted after President Kennedy's June 10 speech offering hope to decreasing world tension. He also firmly supported Communist and neutralist proposals for a no-nuclear zones in several areas of the world.

—Yugoslav policy is to maintain good relations with both East and West," Tito told the federal assembly. But he singled out Communist China and Albania as exceptions to his country's friendly ties with both sides of the cold war.

'Reunited Germany Will Be Red'—Nik

Berlin (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev pledged Sunday night that a reunited Germany would be a Communist Germany.

Khrushchev told a reception for East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht that there "will be a reunited German nation. In our time it can be nothing but a reunified socialist Germany."

The Soviet leader earlier began secret summit talks on a steamer with other Eastern European Communist leaders in an apparent attempt to muster support for "peaceful coexistence" in his growing ideological clash with China for Communist bloc leadership.

Meet On Steamer

They got together on a steamer on the lakes near Berlin. With Khrushchev were Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny, Polish Communist Party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka, Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar, Bulgarian Premier Todor Zhivkov and East German Deputy Premier Willi Stoph.

Stoph represented East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht who had to stay behind to receive congratulations from Communist delegations on his 70th birthday.

Most noticeable absentee was Romanian premier and party boss Gheorghe Gheorghiu-dej. Diplomats speculated he did not come to East Berlin with the other Communist leaders — either because he was boycotting the meeting or had not been invited. Other sources said there were reports he was in poor health.

Officers said the 4 Joslin children all were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Joslin, who farm near Galva. The Holtz boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Meyer of Galva.

Sheriff Carl Schleif said there was no signs that the youngsters had been driving at excessive speeds, and there was no indication they had met a car. An investigation of the crash was continuing.

5 Farm Youths Killed When Car Overturns In Iowa

Aurelia, Iowa (UPI) — Five farm youngsters driving to town to go swimming were killed Sunday afternoon in northwest Iowa when their car flipped upside down and burst into flames.

Four of the victims were members of one family. The accident occurred on a rural road about two miles south of Aurelia in Cherokee County.

The dead were Sharon Joslin, 17, driver of the car; Rodney Joslin, 14; Dale Joslin, 12; Cindy Joslin, 7, and Kenneth Holtz, 13.

JFK, MAC AGREE ON TEST BAN URGENCY

... Kennedy Goes On To Italy

Chelwood Gate, England (UPI) — President Kennedy and Prime Minister Macmillan agreed Sunday on the urgency of a nuclear test ban pact with the Soviet Union. But they remained divided over the need for a nuclear fleet of the North Atlantic allies.

A lightning U.S.-British summit parley which Kennedy — seemingly for old times' sake — fitted into his European tour, ended with the President's departure from Gatwick Airport for Milan and a 3-day visit to Italy.

Kennedy said at the airport that a great deal had been accomplished in the 24-hour talks at Batch Grove, Macmillan's home 35 miles south of London, because of the long basis of understanding that exists between our two countries. He said the renewed test-ban effort had been their main endeavour.

Had Hard Time

Replying Macmillan said: "We have had quite a hard time in talks and discussions throughout the evening, the night and this morning. I hope also you had a pleasant time."

They shook hands and Kennedy walked to his plane.

A communiqué said the talks ended with these results:

—They agreed that U.S. and British negotiating teams should go to Moscow with flexible orders for their meeting with the Russians July 15 on a nuclear test ban treaty.

—They agreed on further studies with other interested allies on the U.S. plan for a mixed-screws fleet of 25 Polaris surface ships. But Macmillan insisted that the talks should not be taken as a commitment that Britain would eventually join the force.

Okayed Aid

—They approved a program of military aid to strengthen India against the threat of new Red Chinese attacks.

—They called on the Communist nations to abide by their 1962 pledges to respect the peace, unity and independence of neutral Laos.

Hebron Aims To Have 'Prettiest Little Area'

By DEAN TERRILL
Southeast Nebraska Bureau
Hebron — Never has this town known a day without the Little Blue River, but most every evening now you think the stream had just started running.

Muscle-bulging volunteers have just begun a riverside park project "born of sentiment and growing toward one of the prettiest little areas in southeast Nebraska." For some it will be much more than picnics and boat rides and channel cuts.

"I helped build that old boat dock as a kid," gestured Jim Russell, "and nearly 100 of us over the years have learned to waterski right here above our little dam."

Russell is one of 5 committee members dedicated to the restoration project. Others, appointed by the City Council, are Harry Bryan, Paul Payson, Ralph Pool and Jim Kenner.

Site Given City

Unused the past couple years after a half century of pouring out power, the old mill dam and its surrounding 9 acres were given the city by Consumers Public Power District. Hebron officials asked for the site after it was advertised for sale.

Promoted locally as Hebron's original power source, the dam had been purchased by Consumers over 25 years ago.

Its recent abandonment for power generation had pushed along repair problems, however, with new gates especially needed to restore the water to boating level.

Half-Mile Stretch

Bryan, who had suggested asking for the tract, said the recreation area will stretch nearly one-half mile along the river's east shore. An undesirable portion further from the river is being sold, but a long-term no-cost lease on adjoining land will bring the total area to about 6 acres.

"One advantage is that the park will be within the city limits, right at the west edge," noted Russell. "Fishermen from 25 to 50 miles away already visit the spot, so it will even become more of an attraction."

Now subject to flooding, the area will be protected eventually if the Angus Dam upstream becomes a reality. Contributions are being sought for the project, which may not be completed until next summer.

North Platte Man Heads State World War I Vets

North Platte (D) — Emanuel Nordin of North Platte was elected state commander of the Department of Nebraska Veterans of World War I Sunday.

His election came as the veterans concluded their seventh annual convention at North Platte. Nordin succeeds George Hancock of Ogallala. Other officers chosen were Charles Spaulding of Lincoln, senior vice commander; H. M. Johnson of Plattsmouth, junior vice commander; John A. Scholtz of Hastings, quartermaster; Msgr. Leslie E. Barnes of Indianola, chaplain, and James R. Delehan of Lincoln, judge advocate.

Hancock was named to a 4-year term on the finance committee.

Hruska Talks At O'Neill Dedication

Hruska said, "It is healthy and proper that there is a two-party system," adding that both parties could use the new building for speeches and rallies.

About 200 persons attending the dedication also heard brief addresses by Lt. Col. C. M. Chamberlain, battalion commander; Maj. Gen. Lytle Welch, state adjutant general, and Norman Otto, administrative assistant to Gov. Frank Morrison.

Combines Start Trek Northward

By The Associated Press
The wheat harvest was wrapping up Sunday in many southern Nebraska counties, as combine crews began moving northward in anticipation of bumper crops.

The harvest in the McCook area was more than three-quarters complete Sunday, and yields were reported running from 4 to 40 bushels per acre, depending on the degree of frost, hail, shattering and drought.

In the 8 southwest Nebraska counties around McCook, uneven yields were reported. Red Willow County's yield was expected to be an average of about 18 bushels per acre.

Gage Half Done

Beatrice area grain elevators reported the harvest more than 50% over, with average yields of very dry wheat ranging from about 25 to 30 bushels per acre. The test weight has averaged 53 to 60 pounds.

Summary Of Conditions

A big buck pressure area—subduced the Bermuda high—extended westward through the Great Plains, bringing a cold wave extending into the Appalachian area and Ohio.

Later Sunday the Bermuda high was active, as it broke on any cold fronts trying to move through the Rocky Mountains into the Great Plains. The Pacific high pressure system, which had moved through western Nebraska into western Colorado, had two features in effect. The Western Barreling air, apparently from Nebraska, would continue to stay in quiet hot air through Tuesday. In the meantime, the cold front was expected, there may be a few isolated thunderstorms in north central Nebraska.

Of No Consequence

By WILLIAM

A story of substantial appeal appeared in the press late last week. It was an Associated Press account of the world's first seminar on inconsequential matters. It was reported that the Colorado meeting was disrupted briefly by a delegate's complaint that he was "alarmed by the enthusiasm" shown by some of those in attendance.

But that is the way with all conventions; there are always those there who want to accomplish something. They are like some fishing trips where there is invariably one of the group who wants to fish. His daylight hours and activities play havoc with the nighttime living of the other "fishermen." And of course, it works now and then the other way—where you have those who really do want to fish but must contend with the carefree soul who likes to throw rocks in the water, jump in and out of the boat, get a sun-tan, etc.

It was the other way around in Colorado, however, as the group was reported to have referred all controversial issues to subcommittees. It was a sort of mock government in this respect where the tough nuts were left to be cracked by somebody else.

The Colorado group did take one vital step. It passed a resolution that Americans adopt "left-handed eating" while traveling abroad. This was done in the hopes that there would be more international harmony if Americans stopped picking up the fork with the right hand.

The sessions were dedicated to a Nebraska man, by the way, who has saved 46½ miles of string but has it on a ball so big he can't get it out of the house to take it anywhere. It is understandable that the man would want to get the string out of the house but not so clear is where he might take it. At the moment, no market for used string comes to mind, which suggests that perhaps we have a subject here of even greater depth than the Colorado delegates had thought. For those delegates, of course, the problem of this one man was substantial enough but if we solved it in its entirety, we might do the world a substantial service.

Lack Faith In Law

It was a disturbing report put out by the Missouri Bar Association and the Prentice-Hall Publishing Co. The report covered a two-year survey of the public's and the lawyer's view of the legal profession in Missouri and it showed that almost a third of the people feel they would have less than an even chance for a fair trial if accused of a crime.

Probably, there is something psychological in the results but they are sobering, just the same. Our system of justice fell most in the public's esteem in the matter of juries, which many people felt were of poor quality. The survey showed the public thought lawyers higher than most other professionals in ability but lower in general reputation.

We wonder if the results are not more of a mark of the times than a strict measure of the legal profession and the courts. The public has been disillusioned in so many

Typical Power Situation

It is not necessarily the fault of the Power Review Board but it is typical that the group has run smack into a problem just as it is beginning to operate. The board was the creation of the present Legislature and it is intended to bring some harmony to the public power picture in Nebraska by peacefully settling disputes among the power agencies of the state.

However, it is already in a dispute of its own. It can't figure out exactly what to tax or assess to pay the cost of its operation. At issue is whether the irrigation revenues of the various power districts should be assessed to pay the cost of an electric power review board.

The theory of some is that irrigation involved, being a byproduct of the generation facilities in question, should logically pay some of the costs of the review board. What the board decides on power mat-

Authors, from the day of Kipling and before, who invoked a sinister Oriental mystery of London's Limehouse to give their readers a queasy feeling will have to find a new point of reference.

Progress and a battery of well-handled bulldozers are currently finishing off what is left of that storied East End section. Dr. Fu Manchu will no longer dispose of his victims by the silent means of trap doors, letting them off into the dark tide-waters of the Thames after being subtly put to death. Instead, the section will bloom with new apartment houses with nothing more sinister in them than the latest in automatic garbage disposals.

Limehouse in some respects never lived up to its evil reputation any more than did some of the communities in our

A Foursome of Late June Brides

MRS. ROBERT W. ZIMMERMAN

White summer blossoms decorated the candlelighted altar of St. Matthews Church, Episcopal, on Saturday afternoon, June 29, for the marriage of Miss Karen Linda Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Wells, to Robert Walker Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Harvey. The service was solemnized at 4:30 o'clock by the Rev. James Stilwell, and Mrs. Lloyd True, organist, played the wedding music. Mrs. True also accompanied the vocalists, George Killebrew, III, of Omaha.

Larry Wentink, as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Hruza, wore sheaths of aquatinted chiffon and carried rounded bouquets of white pompon chrysanthemums.

Serving as best man was Don Thurman, and seating the guests were John Ritchey and James Pardubsky.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of white silk organza smoothed over taffeta. The rounded neckline of the sculptured bodice was bordered with lace applique in a rose motif, and tiny organza roses detailed the cuffs of the elbow sleeves. Sprays of jeweled lace centered with fabric roses trimmed the front of the panniered skirt, which extended into a cotillion train, and a single organza rose held her bouffant veil of illusion. She carried a white prayer book ornamented with a white orchid.

The couple will reside in Lincoln. A former student at Porter Military Academy, Charleston, S. C., Mr. Zimmerman attended the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

MRS. LAWRENCE R. CLARK

At a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony solemnized on Sunday, June 30, Miss Glenda Marie Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Payne, became the bride of Lawrence Robert Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Clark.

The Rev. V. P. Schroeder read the lines of the service at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church, and the organist was Dale Underwood. Mr. Underwood also accompanied Miss Glenda Jenkins, the vocal soloist.

The attendants, who wore daytime frocks of mint green taffeta and carried cascades of white carnations, included Miss Wilma Ibarg, as the maid of honor; Miss Cathy Packett, the bridesmaid; and the junior bridesmaids, Miss Linda Barnett and Miss Judy Grevich.

Dennis Hanneman of Omaha served Mr. Clark as best man, and sealing the guests were Richard Martin of United Brethren Church, and the organist was Dale Underwood. Mr. Underwood also accompanied Miss Glenda Jenkins, the vocal soloist.

The bride's colonial gown was fashioned of white Chantilly lace and bombazine. Seed pearls and iridescent paillettes patterned the lace of the long-sleeved bodice to highlight the sabrina neckline, and the bouffant silk skirt was caught up at the hemline to reveal a dust ruffle of the lace which continued into a tiered train. Her shoulder veil of illusion was held by a plateau cap of tiny fabric roses, and she carried an arrangement of pink sweetheart roses centered with an orchid.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Ozarks, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will live in Lincoln. The bride is a former student at the University of Nebraska, and Mr. Clark attended Nebraska Wesleyan University where he is a member of Zeta Psi fraternity.

MRS. CHARLES M. PALLESEN JR.

Lighted white tapers appointed the chancel of Grace Methodist Church at Crete on Sunday evening, June 30, for the marriage of Miss Lorraine LaVon Sysel, daughter of Mrs. Edw ard Sysel of Crete, and the late Mr. Sysel, to Lt. Charles M. Pallesen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Pallesen of Ainsworth. The 7:30 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Cecil Green.

Wearing sheaths of powder blue silk linen were Mrs. Richard C. Vasak of Azusa, Calif., who was her sister's matron of honor; Mrs. Richard Mattox, New Albany, Ind., and Mrs. James Jirousek, Lincoln, the bridesmaids; and the bride received her Masters degree at the University of Nebraska. She is a member of Tau Beta Sigma, Alpha Psi Omega, Cardinal Key, Pi Lambda Theta, and Omega Psi Theta.

Lt. and Mrs. Pallesen will reside in Washington, D. C., where the bridegroom is stationed at the Pentagon. A graduate of Doane College, Crete, and of St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing, the bride received her Masters degree at the University of Nebraska. She is a member of Tau Beta Sigma, Alpha Psi Omega, Cardinal Key, Pi Lambda Theta, and Omega Psi Theta.

Lt. Pallesen is a graduate of Doane College, Crete, and of the University of Nebraska College of Law. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi, Delta Kappa P., Phi Alpha Theta and Alpha Psi Omega.

this Fourth of July it's Pepsi for those who think young

When Mrs. Carl Ganz was a tea hostess between the hours of 2 o'clock and 4 o'clock at the University Club on Saturday afternoon, the party was a "welcome home" for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dale Ganz who, with Dr. Ganz has returned to Lincoln to reside after a two-years absence.

turned very recently from Iowa City, Iowa, where they resided for two years while Dr. Ganz was working towards his doctorate at the University of Iowa. He was granted his Ph. D. in music this month, and now will be a member of the University of Nebraska faculty.

Dear Abby

Let Him Know How You Think

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 30, get something, and the other married and nothing special to look at. I've been called the "wholesome" type. Last week my husband and I were playing bridge in the home of another couple. My husband went out to our car to thought I made it plain that I did not go in for that sort of thing. Last night we four went to a movie. While walking down the dark aisle, I felt someone pinch me—but good! I thought it was my husband at first, but soon discovered it was this man again. I did not invite these advances and don't like it. How can I let him know how I feel without hurting his wife?

THE WHOLESOME TYPE

DEAR WHOLESOME: If he knows how you FEEL—you have to let him know how you THINK. When you have about 20 seconds alone with him tell him if he doesn't cut out the monkey business you'll tell his wife. And if your husband is bigger than he is—tell him you'll tell your husband.

Mr. Luedtke, grandfather of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's daughters, Cherie and Debbie, and Mrs. Luedtke arrived last Sunday, and were guests at the Allen home until Wednesday.

Neighborhood residents

DEAR ABBY: Last week my 17-year-old son went to a doctor because of a skin condition. He is supposed to go again next week, but he refuses. My husband finally got it out of him. It seems that the doctor wanted him to have a lamp treatment. He had to lie under some lamps for about ten minutes without any clothes on at all. The nurse was in the room the whole time. He was terribly embarrassed by this because the nurse was about 25. So that's why he refuses to go back. I think we should call the doctor and ask him if he can't give the treatment himself from now on. My husband says our son is just being stubborn and we should make him go. He said the doctor will think we are crazy if we call and ask him to change the way he does things in his office. We three have been fighting over this all week. What do you think?

A YOUNG MAN'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Call the doctor and explain. He'll understand.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1♦	Pass	2♥	Pass
Pass	Dble.	Pass

Opening lead — nine of spades.

This hand was played in England during the international trials of 1951. The bidding shown occurred at the table where the pair who eventually finished first held the North-South cards.

East made a doubtful overcall of two hearts, which South doubled. Considering that North-South could not make game in any contract against best defense, this venture proved quite costly, since East wound up going down four — 1,100 points. East-West would have been better off in three diamonds, but they never found that spot.

When the pair who eventually finished second came to play the hand, they also held the North-South cards — but did not fare so well. In fact, they did 2,700 points worse on the deal, because this was the bidding:

♦ Q10763
♦ J5432
WEST
♦ 96
♦ 98652
♦ A842
♦ A8

EAST
♦ K105
♦ AK1073
♦ KJ5
♦ 76
SOUTH
♦ 96
♦ 98652
♦ A842
♦ A8

East wisely passed the spade bid and South responded two hearts. South was short of the proper values for a two heart response — one notrump would have been adequate with his hand — but that's what he bid.

North quite properly raised to three hearts, and South, undaunted, went to four. East had listened to the bidding with mounting interest, and, when four hearts came around to him, doubled.

South realized soon enough that he had made a mistake, but North did not. He redoubled! East had no place to run to, and furthermore had not the slightest desire to run, so he passed. South was not happy with the way things had turned out, but, having no option, he also passed.

West, an innocent bystander in the proceedings, passed and led a diamond. Eventually, South wound up going down three — 1,600 points — thereby illustrating a gain that crime does not pay.

East's brand of conservatism, shown by his pass of one spade, paid exceptionally handsome dividends. Obviously, South came from a different school.

Suburbia Plans For Fourth

EASTRIDGE

Too bad that it isn't April, for we could say something very clever, and then spring another big "April Fool!" before telling you what people in Suburbia are up to these days.

As it is, however, it's actually the first of July, the only thing we have to look forward to is more heat and more humidity—and that's no fooling!

Suburban residents seem to be making the best of the weather these days, however, for rather than the heat getting people down, it seems to be keeping them quite "up," and quite on the go.

Some of those Eastridge residents on the go recently were Mr. and Mrs. Dale F. Brockmeier and their children, Terry and Brent, who have now returned after a week of "getting away from it all" in the mountains of Colorado.

These travelers returned on Friday following their week's vacation in Estes Park.

More travelers returning to the neighborhood recently were Mr. and Mrs. Max Boyd and their daughter and sons, Cheryl, Rusty, and Tommy, who arrived home earlier last week following a vacation spent in the eastern section of the country.

During their two-week trip in the east, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd and their family spent time in New York City, Washington, D.C., and Niagara Falls. They also were guests, briefly, at the home of Mr. Boyd's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Conner, in Long Island, N.Y.

Eastridge residents who have entertained visitors in their home recently are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Allen, whose houseguests were Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Luedtke, of Austin, Tex.

Mr. Luedtke, grandfather of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's daughters, Cherie and Debbie, and Mrs. Luedtke arrived last Sunday, and were guests at the Allen home until Wednesday.

Neighborhood residents who are planning Fourth of July festivities at their home are Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Mastallir and their children, Nancy, Roger, and Mary Jane.

The family's guests for an outdoor steak fry and fireworks in the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mathes and their sons, Jim, Chuck, and Tommy, and Mr. and Mrs. Denny Cochran and their children, Joann and Jeff.

Estes Park in Colorado was a vacation spot for more Eastridge residents recently, and that would have been Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Truitt and their children, Judy, Cheryl, and Ross Jr., who returned last week following their one-week stay there.

During their Colorado vacation Mr. and Mrs. Truitt and their children also visited Mrs. Truitt's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Longbrook, and their children in Denver, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rowley, and their family, in Colorado Springs.

A young lady in Eastmont who has just celebrated a birthday is Miss Cathy Hallberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Hallberg, who observed her 14th anniversary yesterday with a family celebration at home.

In addition to her parents and brothers and sister, John, Jim, and Annette, other family members helping Cathy celebrate her special day were her grandmother, Mrs. H. T. Hallberg, and a cousin, Miss Susan Little, both of Westfield, Ind., whose visit at the Hallberg home we have mentioned before.

Another young lady from the neighborhood will be celebrating her birthday away from home this week. She is Norma Ciebien, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Ciebien, who will be 13 on July 4th, and who will be marking the occasion while at Camp Kiwanis.

Norma left for the camp on Sunday and will be returning home next weekend when the family plans to celebrate the birthday again with a small family party.

Residents from Rye, N.Y., are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bihuniak and their daughters, Tammy and Tina, who arrived two weeks in the Eastmont home of Mrs. Bihuniak's mother, Mrs. Charles C. Pelikam.

Lincoln Swimmer Snaps AAU Mark

... EWING BREAKS NATIONAL RECORD

Marysville, Kan. — Stan-ford Ewing, 12-year-old Lincoln swimmer, broke the existing national AAU record for his age group in the 40-yard breaststroke here Sunday in the Marysville AAU Swimming Meet.

Ewing swam the distance in :25.6 to better the old 11-12-year-old age group record set by John Ludwig in 1962. The record was the second national record set by young Ewing, who two years ago cracked the 50-yard breaststroke record for the boys, 10 and under age group.

Ewing and Mark Bryan led the Lincoln Swim Club to a 4th place finish in the two-day meet. The Lincoln club tallied 156 points to trail the Wichita Swim Club with 310, the Homestead Country Club of Kansas City 220½, and the Topeka Swim Club 190½. The Omaha Swim Club was 5th with 261½ points.

Ewing and Bryan were awarded trophies for scoring the most points in their respective age groups. Ewing had 6 firsts for 42 points in the 11-12-year-old boys' a group and Bryan copped 5 firsts and one 5th for 36 points in the boys 10 and under class.

The two also shattered 9 Marysville pool records between them. Besides his 40-yard breaststroke performance, Ewing set pool marks in the 40-yard freestyle (:20.8), 40-yard backstroke (:25.0), 100-yard freestyle (1:00.0), 40-yard butterfly (:23.6) and 100-yard individual medley.

Bryan, a 10-year-old swimmer, smashed 3 pool records. These were the 40-yard freestyle (:23.6), 40-yard backstroke (:28.2) and 40-yard butterfly (:26.4). He also took first in the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 1:10.1 and won the 80-yard individual medley in :59.9. He finished 5th in the 40-yard breaststroke.

Other Lincoln swimmers who placed included:

Bathyscaphe Fails Again In Sub Hunt

Aboard the USS Fort Snelling at sea (P) the Navy sent its unique, ocean-prowling bathyscaphe Trieste to the bottom of the Atlantic again Sunday but failed for the fifth time to locate the sunken nuclear submarine Thresher.

Results of the dive—abbreviated because of compass and motor failures—were termed "completely negative" by visibly disengaged Navy officers.

The Navy then began to pack up its gear for the return to Boston. The bathyscaphe, which had seemed on the trail of the Thresher's fate, was readied to be towed back to Boston, a journey of 3 or 4 days, "for an overhaul." Sunday's dive was the last of a current series, the Navy said.

Go Back

But there was no indication whether the Thresher would be sent back to the area, some 220 miles east of Boston, where the Thresher sank April 10 while making a test dive. The dead numbered 129, with the nuclear sub presumably plummeting to the ocean floor some 8,400 feet below the surface.

The fifth dive lasted only 4 hours and 45 minutes instead of the usual six hours. Officials explained that the Bathyscaphe's gyro compass experienced a failure and that one of 3 propulsion motors in the Trieste, used to move the craft along the ocean bottom, also failed.

Aboard the Trieste for its final dive in the current series was Capt. Frank A. Andrews, of Newport, R.I., father of 9 children, and on-the-scene commander of the search, who was observing his 42nd birthday Sunday.

Andrews is an Annapolis graduate and holds a doctorate degree in physics from Yale University.

Air Bottle Seen

With him on the Trieste were Lt. Cmdr. Donald L. Keach, 34, and a civilian scientist, Kenneth V. MacKenzie, 51, of San Diego, Calif.

Capt. Andrews said the Trieste was headed for an area of the bottom where a research vessel had photographed a 3,000-pound air bottle.

It is the same area where a research ship had made 3 magnetic contacts earlier this month.

Andrews said the Navy's Bureau of Ships and authorities at Portsmouth, N.H., shipyard, where the Thresher was built, have identified the air bottle from pictures as being the type used on the missing submarine.

He added that the air bottles lying on the bottom would indicate the Thresher could not be far away. He also said it indicates that the hull of the submarine had ruptured.

Andrews explained that the ton and half weight of the air bottle would preclude the possibility that it had drifted any great distance.

Little Boy May Owe His Life To Woman Who Lost A Son

Dixon, Ill. (UPI) — Little James O'Connor owned his life Sunday to a woman he may never meet again.

James, 7, was on a family outing at White Pines State Park, 10 miles north of Dixon. He fell into Pine Creek and was sucked beneath the surface into 10 feet of water.

James' father, Francis O'Connor of Dixon, and his brother, Michael, 15, plunged into the stream. The boy's father and brother were all but ready to give up the search for James when Michael's body brushed James' leg in the muddy water. Michael hauled James to the surface.

An anonymous woman emerged from the small crowd of spectators awaiting arrival of a Polo, Ill., rescue squad. She said she was from

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Berg's How To Work It

One letter simply stands for another in this example. A is used for the first letter, B for the second, etc. Single letters are omitted, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Wishing Well is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle, "solved" by filling in your fortune. Count the letters in each row and column. If there are more than 10 letters, subtract 10 from the number. The sum is the number you start at the top left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. (D.W.)
